The People of the Salinan Tribe

Vol. 10 No. 4

April 2010

THE WAY IT WAS

'El Jolon' dates back to the mid-19th Century

Modernized Spanish Ranch House. "El Jolon." Monterey County. with the Post Office and a Way Station. Heaty C. Dodge, Proprietor. June 26, 1873 is the description written on this drawing, from SUPPLEMENTARY DRAWINGS OF CALIFORNIA LIFE AND CUSTOMS, author unknown. We know that the first building in Jolon was an adobe built in 1851, where the Dutton ruin stands today and that the site of the town, or at least the post office, moved around several times. Remnants of the town were thriving in 1920. Today the post office is on the Army base. Fort Hunter Liggett, several miles from where this building would have stood.

Information and photo provided by Ann Beckett of the San Antonio Valley Historical Association.

The next general meeting will be at Mission Days from 11:00 -3:00 pm on April 10th.
During Mission Days and for our general meeting we will be working on a tule hut and other tribal members will be making arrowheads.

Vision of the Salinan Tribe

We, as the Salinan Tribe, follow the way of our ancestors as we walk the path of our heritage toward becoming complete individuals. We exercise our rights as a sovereign entity. We continue to reawaken our culture. Each and every tribal member has an equal voice.

We, as the Salinan Tribe, commit to honoring the rights of each and every tribal member to practice our spiritual, individual, or religious beliefs. We remember and honor our ancestors, elders, and children now and for all generations to come.

We as the Salinan Tribe, continue to gather as a tribal family.
